

1997

© Christian Richters

DCMS/Wolfson Public Library Programme

Since the mid-1980s the Foundation has committed more than £16.75 million to a variety of library initiatives, spanning university research libraries, public libraries (including the Library of Birmingham, pictured) and safeguarding the country's archives.

2000

Grant to Wolfson Medical School, Glasgow

A grant of £3,475,000 was awarded for the new Wolfson Medical School building at the University of Glasgow.

© Damian Griffiths

Royal Society Wolfson Research Merit Awards

Since 2000, the Foundation has allocated some £2 million each year for the recruitment and retention of outstanding scientists in the UK. The programme is administered by the Royal Society and co-funded by government.

example grants

1996

Winchester Cathedral Trust
Repairs to North Nave
Aisle and Tower
£50,000

Imperial College London
Wolfson Centre for Genetic Therapies
£3,000,000

1997

National Portrait Gallery
Tudor gallery
£500,000

1998

King's College,
London University
Wolfson Centre for
Age-Related Diseases at Guy's
£6,000,000

Loughborough University
New building for Integrated Engineering Faculty Project
£2,500,000

British Museum
Restoration of the King's Library
£3,000,000

1999

University of Durham
Wolfson Research Institute for Medicine, Health and the Environment
(on Stockton/Queen's campus)
£4,000,000

2000

University of Manchester
Wolfson Molecular
Imaging Centre
£4,000,000

University of Warwick
Medical Research Institute
£2,500,000