University libraries

Awards of £10 million were made for university libraries in a partnership with Research Libraries UK at a time when many libraries were rethinking their space. Pictured is the John Rylands Library, Manchester, which received funding in 1962, 1990, 1996 and 2003.

Dame Janet Wolfson de Botton appointed Chairman

Grants such as those to the Hepworth Wakefield, Mount Stewart, Northern Ireland, and the National Museum of Scotland (pictured clockwise) are just a few recent examples of the Foundation's commitment to supporting centres of excellence throughout the United Kingdom.
