

2011 Postgraduate Scholarships in the Humanities

To date, £8.5 million has been committed for postgraduate scholarships in the humanities at nine UK universities. “By investing in them the Wolfson Foundation will help a range of exceptional students across the UK, and will, it hopes, draw attention to the threats to these vital aspects of our academic life, our culture and our society.” Dame Hermione Lee. Photographed here is Wolfson Postgraduate Scholar James Morris, (History, University of York).

© Damian Griffiths

© Kirsten Holst

UCL’s Leonard Wolfson Experimental Neurology Centre at the National Hospital for Neurology and Neuroscience (awarded under Wolfson Neurology Initiative in 2011)

The Leonard Wolfson Experimental Neurology Centre at UCL established through an exceptional grant of £20 million in 2011 following a rigorous, international competition.

60th Anniversary

Lectures given by Neil MacGregor OM, Professor Sir David Cannadine and Professor Shirley Tilghman in Oxford, Glasgow and London mark the 60th anniversary of the Foundation.

2013 Carnegie Medal of Philanthropy

Dame Janet Wolfson de Botton, Chairman, receiving the Carnegie Medal of Philanthropy, Edinburgh, 2013.

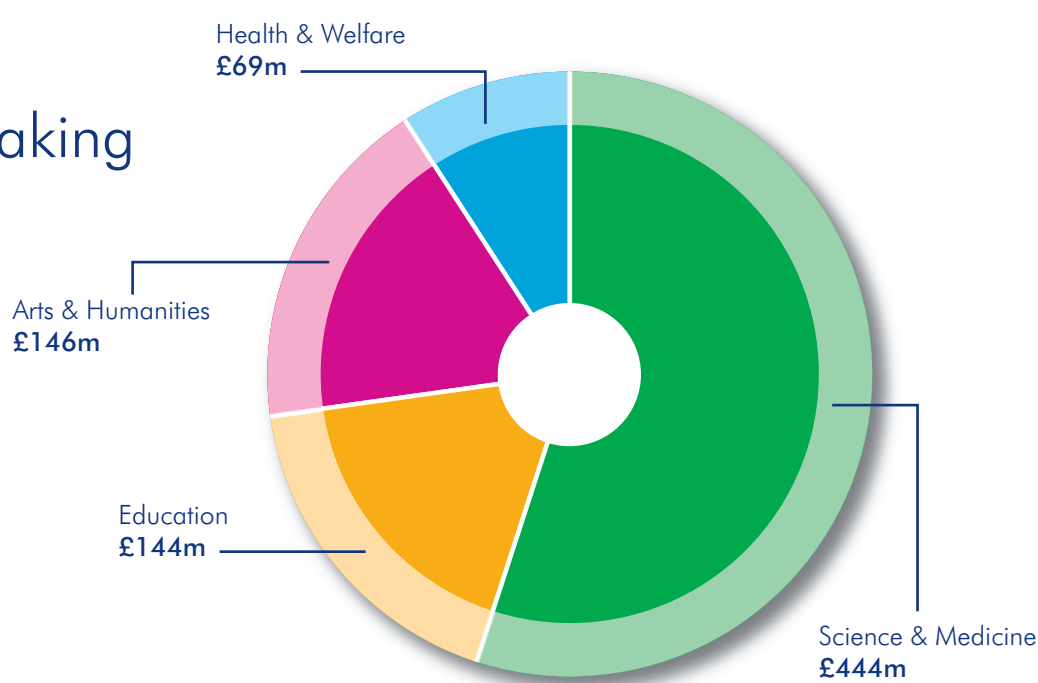

© Alan McCredie

2015

Total grants across funding themes since 1955

Summary of grants by decade

Grant-making by 2015

Year	Total £ millions	Number of projects
1955-1964	£9	193
1965-1974	£22	392
1975-1984	£43	841
1985-1994	£108	2109
1995-2004	£260	2469
2005-2014	£361	3814
Totals	£803	9818

Total grants expressed in 2015 values: £1.685 billion

example grants

2011

Tate
Gallery in Tate Modern extension
£5,000,000

2013

Prince’s Trust
New centre for Glasgow
£1,000,000

National Theatre
Exhibition space in redeveloped National Theatre complex
£1,000,000

University of York
Integrated Global Atmospheric Chemistry Laboratory
£1,250,000

2012

University of Oxford
Centre for the Prevention of Stroke and Dementia
£4,000,000

Durham University
Centre for Fundamental Research in Physics
£1,500,000

Royal Academy of Arts
Redevelopment of 6 Burlington Gardens
£1,000,000

2014

University of Exeter
Living Systems Institute
£2,000,000

Westminster Abbey
Restoration of Triforium to create Queen’s Diamond Jubilee Galleries
£1,000,000